

The Star Spangled Banner

Francis Scott Key

Standard

Baritone

O, [A] say can you [F#m] see,
By the dawn's ear[B7] ly [E7] light,
What so [A] proudly we [E7] hailed
At the [A] twilight's last gleaming,

Whose broad [A] stripes and bright [F#m] stars
Through the peri[B7] lous [E7] fight,
O'er the [A] ramparts we [E7] watched
Were so [A] gallantly streaming?

And the [A] rocket's red glare
The bombs [E7] bursting in air
Gave [A] proof through the [E7] night
That our [A] flag [F#m] was [B7] still [E7] there

[E7] O, [A] say does that [D] star-spangled
[Bm] Banner yet [A] wa [E7] ve
O'er the [A] land [E7] of the [A] free
[F#m] And the [A] home of [E7] the [A] brave?